The Court may thereafter allow one counsel for each party to question briefly individual panel members on issues not addressed by the Court. The Court will discontinue questioning by counsel if questioning seeks to accomplish anything other than to elicit information regarding the panel member's background, biases or suitability for service.

Proposed questions for the Court's questioning shall be submitted with the trial brief.

3. Proposed Jury Instructions

Counsel for the various parties are required to confer with one another in person with respect to proposed jury instructions, special interrogatories and verdict forms, with a view to reaching an agreement.
